For Tennessee and the Ohio valley, fair, with occasional showers, becoming variable, with higher temperature and humidity.

HANSA telegraphic advices state that a sugar crop of the present year is estimated at 464,000 tons, against 529,000 tons in 1880.

A PARO dispatch states that Commandant Schuster, attached to President Greer's military household, will represent President Greer at the centennial of the surrender of Cornwallis, at Yorktown, in October next.

A CAR of new wheat, the first of the season, arrived at St. Louis yesterday from Fort Worth, Texas. It was graded No. 3 and wintered, and sold at auction for $1.50 per bushel. It was purchased by George Bain, president of the National Millers' association.

THE Memphis received from the author, about W. C. Falkner, a copy of "The Valley of Memphis," which is just out from the press of G. Carleton & Co., of New York. A very extended notice of this interesting work will appear in this paper Sunday morning. The book is for sale by Mansfield & Clapp & Taylor.

THE large movement on the Mississippi is receding; next Tuesday but one a convention is to be held at Council Bluffs, the object of which will be to promote the extension of transportation by barges on the Mississippi river, in connection with what is doing at St. Louis. The success of such a project is a matter of great importance to the river and its affluents, though open to the whole South.

PROBATIVE taxation is becoming a source of much discontent in Canada. The Montreal Herald recently said that trades are made unprofitable by excessive taxation. "You may be good, or even have a million, but the first force the taxing power has is to take away from you a large portion of your income, and then to tax the remainder."

AND still New Orleans is not happy. It is a trouble new because vessels are required to present themselves at ship island for sanitary examination, as the "heated term" has now arrived, before going up to the city. The merchants are objecting to this, as obstructing trade, although yellow-fever obstructions to the river of devastation have never been so great as now. It is a great pity that this city and other cities connected with it, of the most importance.

AT ALBANY, last night, the special committee under the investigation of the charges of attempted bribery of members of the Assembly to vote for Channing M. Depew for United States Senator. Assemblyman Simon testified that one Edwards told him that his last fall's campaign expenses would be paid if he would vote for Depew. Assemblyman Bradley testified that Senator Sessions offered him $1000 to vote for Depew. The latter, being examined, said he had urged Bradley to vote but that he had not done so.

TO-MORROW there will be a total eclipse of the moon, which will be visible in this country. By Washington time the moon will enter the penumbra at 11:07 o'clock p.m.; at 12:03 a.m. it will enter the shadow. The total eclipse begins at 1:57 a.m.; the middle of the shadow will be at 2:14 a.m. The total eclipse will end at 2:37 a.m.; the moon will leave the shadow at 2:53 a.m. and the penumbra at 4:24 a.m. At all night, after, but get your opera glasses bright and clear for the event. Glasses that show two pictures of the moon at the same time, and which are in one place, are not adapted for the observation and should be avoided.

ABANDONED ships are becoming a source of danger on the sea routes. Owing to the practice of sending worn-out hulks to sea, looking to insurance for the payment of losses by wreck, there are more numerous than generally known. In Lloyd's list are mentioned a number of abandoned ships which sailed during the month of January. These sometimes drift about for months, and generally, of course, in the tracks along which ships usually travel. They are a source of great danger, particularly to sailing steamers. When out down, as they often are, to near the water's edge, danger from collision with them is especially imminent.

THE correctness of Vassar's predictions of frosts in June in parts of Canada and the Northern States is attracting much attention. He says that the weather is likely to be not improbable up to June 20th, with frosts and possibly snow in the mountains. About the twenty-second and twenty-third the indications are particularly favorable for frost, after which a steady rain may be looked for. About the twenty-ninth storms are likely to visit the Western States, with thunder and lightning. The month will be hot and wet, with threatening weather. The eleventh (to-morrow), eighteenth and twenty-sixth (to-day) are disturbing positions of the planets—it they have any such direct influence.

THE Virginia State Executive Committee met to-day, and adopted a resolution recommending a delegate convention of the Republicans of the State should be held for the purpose of a consultation, as to the proper course to be pursued in the coming campaign, and for such action as, in the judgment of the majority of said convention, may be considered for the future well-being of the Republican party of the State; also, a resolution that a meeting of the State Central Committee be held on the twenty-ninth, to decide upon the matter of calling a State Convention. General W. C. Wickham, the chairman, presented an address to the committee, and a copy of the same was read. It calls upon all Republicans to stand squarely by their colors and their principles, and work diligently to maintain their country and club organization, to add to the strength of their numbers, and to exert themselves to prevent Republican voters from being deluded into a desertion of their own party and forming a coalition with one which refuses to acknowledge allegiance to the Constitution.

"Remember, we would have carried this State for Garfield and Arthur in November last had not our efforts been frustrated by interference from outside parties and treason on the part of some of our own men. The actions of the Democratic party of the State are more bitterly divided than ever. Our party here commands day more of respect than it has ever done, and by bravely adhering to our principles and the integrity of our organization, we will attract the support of very many of the most solid men of the State. Labor for success, be true to ourselves, our party and our country, and we will achieve a victory at the approaching election for our party which will be permanent."

QUEBEC, June 9.—One of those destructive fires which Quebec has seen so often, broke out at 11 p.m. in the midst of St. John's street, midway between St. Charles and the upper part of the town. The fire originated in a small wooden house on Oliver street, and immediately spread to the adjoining buildings. The fire brigade became demoralized, and lost all control over themselves and the fire. At 2 o'clock the main building, John's church (Roman Catholic), the largest in the city, worth $100,000, was burning, and 600 persons were crowded out of the building, and the majority are poor and small, and of wood. The loss so far must be over three-quarters of a million dollars. There are certainly

ONE THOUSAND FAMILIES HOMELESS. The fire is still spreading. No loss of life is reported. The houses are camped out in the fields in the surrounding country. New Regulation from the Treasury Department Regarding the Merchant Marine—A Grand Jury Worthy the Occasion Made by the Star Route Robbers.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—The new grand jury, to which the testimony against the Star route ring will be submitted, was sworn to-day. It is pronounced an excellent jury, and one that it will do its duty.

Physical examination of Seamen. The Treasury department to-day issued a circular providing that, to insure owners of American vessels a comprehensive and sound and healthy seamen, facilities for the proper physical examination of the crews at all ports where medical officers of the marine hospital service are stationed, such officers will, upon the application of any United States shipping commission, or of the master or owner of any vessel engaged in the foreign trade, or passenger steamer engaged in coasting, examine physically any seaman or seamen and give certificates as to their fitness or otherwise.

Capital News in Brief. Mr. Garfield sits up two hours or more at a time, in a good appetite and rapidly gains strength. The Commission of Revenue to-day compromised the case of the Com Exchange Bank of Chicago for unpaid taxes on capital and deposits for $125,000; $20,000 of the amount is for taxes on State and county deposits.

The Treasury department purchased 375,000 ounces of fine silver to-day for the San Francisco, Philadelphia and New Orleans mints.

Assistant Attorney General Freeman has decided that express companies can carry such written matter as checks, transcripts of deeds, etc., and any other matter not of the nature of personal correspondence.

The London Mail and Express to-day received contained an elaborate article on the official report of the German government, prepared by the late Dr. Glatzer, of the Marine hospital service. The article concludes as follows: No country is more soiled with trichinosis. American meat has earned an ill repute greater than it deserves, simply because greater attention has been directed to it. Many outbreaks in Germany referred to it (American meat), have been caused by German-grown hams, and only one in this country (England) was from a house-fatted animal. As regards Germany, trade jealousy has played an important part, and even scientific men have allowed themselves to make rash and unsupported assertions. Such, like Prof. Hoesche, have honorably admitted their error. American and German hams have been equally at fault, and since so valuable a supply of food cannot be cut off, and each may protect himself by proper care in cooking, the prohibition of the continental governments seem unjustified, though it drive the authorities of the United States to the consideration of the rehabilitation of their credit, it may be productive of good.
